He puts no limits to the outpouring of graces on the parish!*

Perpetual Eucharist Adoration Blesses Parishes:

- "We can deepen our awareness of God's presence in our midst; in the sacraments and particularly in the Eucharist, in Scripture, through sacrifice and prayer, in adoration and ecclesial communion and through testimony and evangelization." Most Rev. Brendan M. O'Brien, President Emeritus of the Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops
- "When we participate in His loving presence, made present in the Eucharist, we begin to live with the same divine life that He shares with His heavenly Father." Bishop Raymond Roussin of Canada
- "At first, everybody from parishioners to priest friends said it would never work, but I didn't listen. I kept pushing the idea and eventually things began to snowball. I can't tell you how excited everyone is over this... The amount of cooperation we've had among the parishioners has been phenomenal. They came out after work and on weekends to help renovate the chapel and the school kids made posters to advertise Perpetual Adoration in the local stores." Fr. Dominick, Pastor, Our Lady of Grace Parish
- "Many come to our little Chapel throughout the day and into the middle of the night. It is rewarding to see this participation in an act of Faith of God's presence in the Holy Eucharist. The peace of mind expressed by our visitors to the Chapel is inspiring." Msgr. John, St. Theresa's Parish
- "I think the greatest boast of any pastor would be that his [parish] is a 'Eucharist' parish... I believe that St. Anthony's is fast becoming a Eucharistic people... One cannot spend an hour with Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament and not be affected by it." Fr. Robert, St. Anthony

Perpetual Eucharistic Adoration Attracts Parishioners:

- "I was pastor of St. Boniface... As pastor, I had a problem to solve: How do I feed all these hungry sheep? For months I searched and prayed. A series of providential events led to a solution: perpetual adoration of the Blessed Sacrament. In the past, I had tried periods of exposition of the Blessed Sacrament in the parish, but with limited success. I really didn't think it would work for any extended period. I was wrong. Now, after 10 years of experience, I realize that my doubts were unfounded... For the past 10 years I have witnessed a community that responds." Fr. Michael

- “It has brought our people together... We feel that many blessings have come from Perpetual Adoration. We remain a very strong and viable parish in difficult times. The faith of our people is strong, you can feel it here.” Fr. Mide, St. Peter Catholic Church
- “We’re getting a lot of blessings from it, every Church should do it.” Pastor, St. Pius X parish
- “The spirituality of the Holy Eucharist is the spirituality of the Church. I personally feel that Perpetual Adoration is necessary in order to develop a true and deep Eucharistic spirituality among the people.” Fr. Charles

Perpetual Eucharistic Adoration Changes the World:

- “I think that if enough young priests like myself would stand up, speak out and be heard, there would be a more zealous Church for the cause of Christ in the Blessed Sacrament... Now is the time for all of us to return and say we know Him. We know Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament. Our life is dedicated to His Eucharistic Reign.” Fr. Thomas
- “The Lord is asking us to have Perpetual Adoration so that His Kingdom may come. The power of continual prayer before the Blessed Sacrament will bring about Christ’s Kingdom on Earth.” Fr. Pierre, Sacred Heart Cathedral

“Perpetual Adoration is greatly pleasing to God because it brings people to Him... Perpetual Adoration gives graces for the whole world to come back to Jesus.” Fr. Clarence, St. Michaels
