

Remember Perpetual Eucharistic Adoration Canada (registered Canadian charity # 890624927RR0001, legal name: Call to Holiness Canada Ltd.) in your Will or Estate Planning

Are you interested in learning how you can continue to promote our mission after God calls you from this life?

The best way you can do this is to include Perpetual Eucharistic Adoration Canada (or list our legal name: Call to Holiness Canada Ltd.) as a beneficiary in your Will and other estate planning documents.

A Will is the most common way to make an after-death gift to Call to Holiness Canada Ltd. The basic way to include our charity as a beneficiary under your will is to insert the following language (which your own lawyer may wish to modify):

Bequest of a specific amount:

"I give, devise, and bequeath $_____ to Call to Holiness Canada Ltd. (also known as "Perpetual Eucharistic Adoration Canada"), a federally incorporated registered Canadian charity # 890624927RR0001. As of the date of execution of this document, Call to Holiness Canada Ltd. may be contacted by mail at P.O. Box 74511, 270 The Kingsway, Toronto, ON M9A 5E2, or by telephone at 416-527-0839, or by email at perpetualadoration@outlook.com."

— OR —

Bequest of the remainder of an estate (i.e., the amount left over after all specific bequests have been fulfilled):

"I give, devise, and bequeath to Call to Holiness Canada Ltd. (also known as "Perpetual Eucharistic Adoration Canada") a federally incorporated registered Canadian charity # 890624927RR0001, all [or insert the desired fraction or percentage] of the rest, residue, and remainder of my estate, both real and personal. As of the date of execution of this document, Call to Holiness Canada Ltd. may be contacted by mail at P.O. Box 74511, 270 The Kingsway, Toronto, ON M9A 5E2, or by telephone at 416-527-0839, or by email at perpetualadoration@outlook.com."

Other useful vehicles for making donations are inter vivos or testamentary trusts, and registered plans such as RRSPs, RRIFs, or TFSAs, as well as insurance policies and annuities of various kinds, where Call to Holiness Canada Ltd. can be listed as a beneficiary.
